ATDA Scholarship recipients may also submit essays for consideration for the Greg East Memorial Scholarship.

The recipients will be honored at the ATDA Convention in Orange Beach, AL, on July 15, and the Greg East Memorial Scholarship winner will be announced. Joel Stephenson wishes to thank all the association members and industry contributors for making this valuable program possible.

ATDA and several other state and national associations collaborate with the University of the Aftermarket Foundation (UAF) Scholarship Committee. Through this cooperative effort, students can complete one online application at www.automotivescholarships.com/ATDA and receive consideration for the ATDA, UAF scholarships, and other industry awards.

Because of the generosity of ATDA members and friends of the association, scholarships are awarded annually to members, their employees, and their family members to assist in pursuing higher education. To date, ATDA has awarded over $303,500 in scholarships. More information is available at www.alatiredealers.com.
